MUSIC I ART I FOOD I ADVENTURE

AN INITIATIVE BY

BRIEF OF MAJULI MUSIC FESTIVAL 2019

ABOUT MAJULI

Majuli is the largest inhabited River Island in the world located in the middle of mighty river Brahmaputra. The Island is famous for Neo-Vaishnavite culture started by 15th Century scholar and reformer Srimanta Sankardeva. Although dominated by the Mising (Miri) community, the Island is also home to other ethnic communities like the Deoris, Sonowal Kachari, Nepalis etc. Majuli was formally declared the first Island district of India on 8th September 2016.

According to the statistics with the Assam government, there were 65 Vaishvavite Satras in the Island. However, most of them had to shift to other places due to the recurrent erosion problem every year and only 22 Satras exists in the Island now. The erosion had already eaten up more than one-third of the Island's landmass over the years. While Majuli comprised over 1,256 square km of land in the beginning of 20th century, the Island is reduced to a mere 352 square km in 2014.

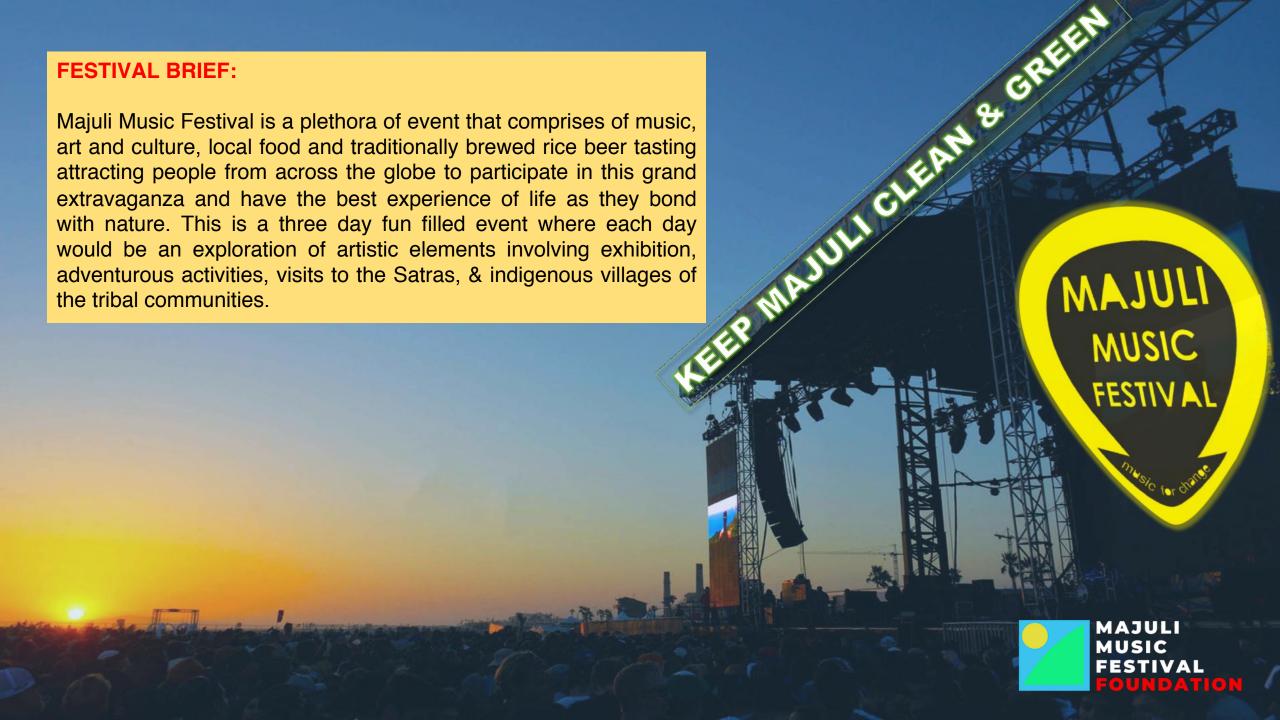

WHY MAJULI MUSIC FESTIVAL?

Majuli Music Festival is curated with a vision to promote rural tourism and uplift the local economy thereby leading to self sufficiency. Flood & Soil Erosion had always been a challenge during monsoon for the Islanders. This initiative will boost its pledge to the UNESCO for the "World Heritage Site" which is due since more than a decade.

As our tagline says, "Music For Change"

VISION:

To preserve the indigenous music, art and culture and food habits and let people explore the eco diversity of Majuli.

MISSION:

To bring all artists in one stage irrespective of any genres of music, exchanging of ideas and culture.

OBJECTIVE:

To create a community that is for Majuli, by Majuli and with Majuli. A Community that strongly believes in creating a conducive environment, that will help Majuli and Majulians prosper in a manner that becomes an example for the world to follow.
